

Pooches at Play

Photos by Josh Hawkins

Dogs and their playful owners packed Grant Bark Park Sunday for a fundraising carnival. Clockwise from top left: Pinky claimed possession of this squeaking tennis ball and was unwilling to give it up, loving both tennis balls and things that squeak; Mindy Martinez holds a treat up that Tiki has to catch in the air as part of the obstacle course; Dyson works for a treat on his first birthday; Nala works her way through a tube.
