

Lost on Irving Park and Damen 11/10

Bacci (aka Irving) weighs 15 pounds and is salt and pepper colored with one brown ear.

If you've seen him, please call Lilyan on 773-327-6691 or 773-528-0526

Bacci is the companion of Lilyan Martin, an 81 year-old resident of North Center who is heart broken.

Little Bacci bolted out the front door on November 11 at about 10:00am. A store employee on Damen and Irving Park saw Bacci dodging traffic, and ran out and caught him. Moments later a car pulled up and a woman said she would take the dog. That is the last time anyone saw Bacci. We were hoping that this person is a rescuer, or someone who intends to seek out Bacci's owner, and return him.

The woman who took Bacci said that she would call him Irving, as he was found on Irving Park Ave.

Please help us re-unite Lilyan and Bacci. Lilyan does not have the resources or ability to spread the word about Bacci, so please join us in looking for him.

Bacci will need to be groomed. And he was scheduled to be neutered. We think he will soon turn up at a vet, or at a groomer.

Thank you and God Bless you!
